

DIOCESAN BOYS' SCHOOL
BOARDING SCHOOL APPLICATION (2008-2009)

The School believes that a pre-determined period of time spent in a safe and friendly environment with other students away from home will assist a student (i) to develop valuable social skills through interaction and mutual reliance (ii) to learn discipline and mentorship and (iii) to achieve a better appreciation of the significance of, and responsibility associated with, independence.

The School regards boarding as an important component of school life and school culture.
